WHAT PASTORS SAY OF IT.

"I prize the 'Pocket Record' as a valuable vade mecum carefully and conveniently arranged and attractively and durably bound."

REV. KERR BOYCE TUPPER, D. D.

"Very complete and satisfactory. Just what every pastor needs."

REV. J. R. MILLER, D. D.

"I have examined many Pocket Records and pronounce 'Stall's' by far the best."

REV. MADISON C. PETERS, D. D.

"Your Pastor's Record is compact, convenient, and complete."

REV. M. RHODES, D. D.

"A marvel of compactness and comprehensiveness. Is just what every Pastor needs."

REV. A. A. WILLITS, D. D.

"A most complete multum in parvo Pastoral Record."

REV. J. G. BUTLER, D. D.

"I want to heartily commend your 'Pastor's Pocket Record.' I have never seen anything better, and I shall urge my friends everywhere to use it."

REV. J. WILBUR CHAPMAN, D. D.

PREFACE.

This book is sent out to supply a want felt by ministers of every denomination. To most pastors each volume will afford sufficient space to record the work of about two years. When full, the record may, at any time, be continued in another volume, thus enabling a minister to preserve a condensed record of his entire ministerial career.

The various departments explain themselves, and it only remains for me to offer a few

SUGGESTIONS.

Arrange names of "members" and those iucluded under head of "clerical calls," alphabetically, with surname written first—e. g., Washington, George. There is space sufficient for recording the names of 714 members, and where circumstances will allow after B. and S., leave at least 15 lines. After O. F. K. L. M. and W., at least 10 lines. After all other letters, at least 5 lines.

In recording date of "Calls," place the year at the head of columns, and designate date by figures—e. g., 9, 26 meaning ninth month, twenty-sixth.

"Sermons Preached."—Designate written or extempore sermons by the initial letter. The record of any sermon, previously preached, may be readily found by tracing rapidly the column designated "Book." "Prayer-meeting Lectures," and like discourses may be recorded regularly among the sermons, or the last six or eight pages of the department of sermons, Preached, may be set apart for each record, as may be preferred.

"New Members."—This department is intended to afford a complete record of names of all persons received into the church, so that a minister may know at the close of his ministerial career, not only the number, but the names of all persons whom he has received into the church.

"Cash Received and Paid Out" is designated for the larger receipts and disbursements.

"Journal of Prominent Events" will, when properly kept, afford the dates of settlement in new field of labor, laying of corner-stone or consecration of church, seasons of special religious interest, etc.

The "Tabular Summary" will exhibit a resumé of work, which may be recorded quarterly, semi-annually or annually, as each may elect.

Dr. Joseph Cook,	Rev. F. B. Meyer,
Rev. Chas. M. Sheldon,	Dr. John Clifford,
Dr. Theo. L. Cuyler,	Dr. Robert F. Horton,
Dr. Francis E. Clark,	Fred'k Anthony Atkins,
Bishop Vincent,	Rev. Thomas Spurgeon,
Anthony Comstock,	Hon. W. E. Gladstone,
Mrs. I. M. Alden (Pansy).	L. Ormiston Chant,
Frances E. Willard.	Lady Henry Somerset.

By Eminent Physicians and hundreds of others.

What Eminent Ministers say of Dr. Stall's Pure Books on Avoided Subjects.

REV. CHARLES M. SHELDON.

"I believe the book will do great good, and I hope its message may be used for the bettering of the homes of the world."

THEODORE L. CUYLER, D. D.

"Your admirable little book, 'What a Young Boy Ought to Know,' ought to be in every home where there is a boy."

FRANCIS E. CLARK, D. D.

"Written reverently, but very plainly. It will save a multitude of young men from evils unspeakable."

THE RIGHT REV. WILLIAM N. McVICKAR, D. D.

"I heartily endorse and recommend 'What a Young Man Ought to Know.' I believe that it strikes at the very root of matters, and ought to be instrumental for much good."

CHARLES L. THOMPSON, D. D.

"It is indeed what boys ought to know—the failure to know which has been the cause of many sorrows and pains and penalties. Why was not this book written centuries ago?"

JOSIAH STRONG, D. D.

"Your book is most reverent and will inspire reverence. I hope many parents will have the wisdom to make use of it."

What Eminent Ministers say of Dr. Stall's Pure Books on Avoided Subjects.

HERRICK JOHNSON, D. D., LL. D.

"To say a bold courageous thing on a confessedly delicate subject, without any offence to true modesty, is a fine achievement. All manhood and womanhood ought to thank you."

REV. JOHN CLIFFORD, M. A., D. D.

"Your book does not shirk the difficult problems of life, and yet it handles these problems so as to make the study a help to self-restraint and an inspiration to self-mastery. Dr. Stall has laid the rising generation under an immense obligation."

REV. J. A. WORDEN, D. D.

"Your manner of elucidating and elaborating these facts and truths is in the first place faithful, then delicate, and avoids both coarseness and prudishness. May God bless and use your book which He has evidently animated."

REV. JOSEPH COOK, D. D., LL. D.

"It is everywhere suggestive, inspiring and strategic in a degree, as I think, not hitherto matched in literature of its class."

BISHOP JOHN H. VINCENT, D. D., LL. D.

"You have handled with great delicacy and wisdom an exceedingly difficult subject."

REV. NEWELL DWIGHT HILLIS, D. D.

"Your book is a wholesome and helpful contribution to a most difficult subject, and its reading will help to make the American home happier and more safely guarded."

REV. F. B. MEYER, B. A.

"I should like to see a wide and judicious distribution of this literature among Christian circles."

A GREAT BOOK ON CHARACTER BUILDING FOR YOUNG MEN

"MANHOOD'S MORNING"

By Joseph Alfred Conwell

Cloth, $1.00, net

Commended by Eminent People

Col. Geo. W. Bain, the noted Orator and Lecturer: "MANHOOD'S MORNING is one of the most valuable books for young men I have ever read. It cannot fail to bring forth a harvest of fine cut features of virtuous manhood. It should have a great circulation. I suggest it as a rich gift to any young man."

Prof. Lyman B. Sperry, M. D., member of The Redpath Lyceum Bureau, Author of "Talks to Young Men:" "I wish that every young man might read it yearly from the time he is fourteen until he is twenty-eight.

"Mr. Conwell has rendered the world an exceedingly great service in the preparation of "MANHOOD'S MORNING."

Bishop J. H. Vincent, LL. D., Chancellor of Chautauqua University: "I have been impressed by its practical value, its fullness of material, its force and directness. Every minister who deals with young men, and every young man who cares to avoid evil and love righteousness should read the book."
